Vishwa Yuvak Kendra

Quarterly Newsletter

Foreword

During this quarter, thrust was given on more outstation programmes, with 10 programmes carried out under State-level Thematic programmes and 10 programmes under Institutional Tie-up Programmes.

While themes like Sustainable Development Goals, WASH, Entrepreneurship Training, Fund Mobilization, NGO Management, Disaster Management and Mitigation, RTI, Water Resource Management, Panchayati Raj etc. were covered by way of state-level thematic workshop/conferences, important subjects like Promotion of Agriculture, Child Sexual Abuse, Importance of Social Media, Role of Youth in Nation Building and Role of Youth in Cleanliness Campaigns, were covered through Institutional Tie-up Programmes. State level programmes are organized with the support of established regional level partner organizations while institutional tie-up programmes, aimed at establishing a strong volunteer base for Vishwa Yuvak Kendra, are organized with the support of educational institutions and training institutes.

The annual Joint Staff Development Programme of KAS partner network was also organized during the quarter. The programme was held at Dharamshala, Himachal Pradesh, on "Reimagining India: Emerging Issues and Challenges", and was attended by many dignitaries and eminent subject experts. The Kendra also organized its annual family event, "Family Day" during the quarter. Family Day is a day of fun and enjoyment wherein the family members of the entire VYK Team congregate and mingle with each other.

Apart from in-house programmes, state-level programmes and institutional tie-ups, VYK team also focused its efforts on its community developmental activities, wherein programmes were organized for the holistic development of the community residents. Apart from regular health camps, VYK also organized motivational programmes and awareness generation activities for the residents. Through our activities, we aim to improve the quality of life of the community residents and we would like to believe that we are able to contribute to the same, at least to an extent.

With only the last quarter of the year remaining, the VYK Team is putting maximum efforts to ensure timely completion of the objectives envisioned by the higher management. However, VYK Team acknowledges the fact that merely achieving the objectives specified is not important, but it has to be ensured that all the programmes organized should be of the exceptional caliber that is expected from an institution like VYK. We are highly thankful to all our partners for their support which has made this possible. With the support of everyone and the guidance of our senior management, we would strive to carry out our developmental objectives in an exemplary manner.
